FOR PROGRESSIVE MUSIC RETAILERS

5 FIRST ACT DELIA LS
First Act's latest guitar in its Limited Edition line, the Delia LS, is hand-crafted and made in the United States. It features a pared-down mahogany body and a slim-profile mahogany neck. Two custom-designed, overwound, single-coil pickups provide big sound and a hum-canceling effect when both are active. The double cutaways allow for easy high-fret access. (firstact.com)

6 AXL BADWATER ELDORADO With distressed finishes, AXL's new Badwater Eldorado electrics have the feel of being broken-in and come with two EMG-designed single-coil pickups. All have a solid alder body with vintage-inspired distressing, a rock maple neck, antiqued hardware and a string-through-body bridge. The headstock, pickguard and backplate are also distressed. MSRP: $199.99. (axlguitars.com)

7 DAISY ROCK BANGLES SIGNATURE MODEL Designed with The Bangles in mind, Daisy Rock's new Artist Signature series Bangles guitar features a metallic black finish with contrasting white binding, basswood body, maple neck and rosewood fingerboard. It's lightweight and includes Daisy inlays with a 12th fret lotus. Vintage mini-humbuckers, a chrome Tune-O-Matic bridge with Trapeze tailpiece and Grover tuners. (daisyrock.com)

8 YAMAHA RBX4 A2 Yamaha's new RBX4 A2 four-string electric bass uses the company's Alternative Internal Resonance (A.I.R.) technology to give players heavy sustain and resonance in a lightweight instrument. Available in white/aircraft gray and solid black, it's equipped with two Yamaha single-coil pickups, which are sonically matched to the instrument's body. MSRP: $899.99 (yahamaguitars.com)
